That Tired Feeling
Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for such a condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

From Wailanae.

Deputy-Sheriff Sheldon was up from Wailanae today. He says Wailanae is on the verge of a boom.
The railroad will likely reach them in June, when things will take on a double rustle. Mr. Sheldon wants three more policemen for his district. He has only one assistant now, and thinks his force not strong enough to cope with the many big excursion parties that will go that way this summer.

THE WAR IS NOW OVER.

CHINA AGREES TO THE HEAVY DEMANDS OF JAPAN.

Final Peace Declared—Terms—Li Hung Chang and Party Going Home.

The latest news from the Orient comes in the daily Gazette of Yokohama of the 17th inst. It says if the meetings between the Japanese commission and the Chinese envoys:

There are signs that the negotiations were successfully concluded at yesterday's meeting. The signing of the treaty will take place today or tomorrow. The territory and indemnity to be given to Japan are, it appears, nearly the same as given in a recent issue.

To give up Formosa, Shinkang and Corea, to pay an indemnity of 400,000,000 taels (1 tael = 600,000 yen, and to give Japanese extra territorial rights while not exacting them in return, must be a bitter pill for China to swallow. Any nation less corrupt would by this time have so developed her own resources as to have been able to secure far less humiliating terms. Assuming the news to be true we are not sorry for China. She has brought the indignity upon herself by her incompetence and frightful corruption, and alienated all sympathies by her petulance, her arrogance and vacillation. With anything like ordinary resolution, she could have worn out Japan, but she is too effete to be firm, too stupid to be resourceful. It is a pitiful spectacle.

The meeting of the 15th lasted five hours.

Dispatches to the Gazette published on the 15th say that Li Hung Chang and the Chinese embassy is preparing to return home, that an advance party has already gone.

Mr. Shimizu, the Japanese Em-bassador here, said: "We have advices that peace has been concluded, but no details are at hand yet."

A NEW ENGINEER.

Probabilities on the Fire Department Extension.

It is likely that Chief Hunt will appoint Pat Hughes to the new place of Engineer in the fire department. The new station is to be on Maunakea street. It will be established as soon as material now needed arrives. The equipment is expected by the Australia. Probably Engineer Barnhart, now at No. 1 station, will be sent to Maunakea street, to be succeeded in his present place by Hughes. The latter was formerly in the fire department and has always been regarded as a first-class man. Barnhart, in his new assignment, will have charge of both a chemical and a steam engine. He has rendered very satisfactory service at No. 1.

At Central Union.

There was a very large congregation at Central Union church Sunday evening. The extra attraction was the first of a series of four sermons on "Holy places in the life of Christ." Rev. D. P.
Birnie, the pastor, has visited Palestine. His word picture of Bethlehem, the little village outside Jerusalem, was matter-of-fact, free from grandiose and clear to all.
The scene of the birthplace of Christ was similarly portrayed. The discourse was very pleasing to the congregation.

SPRECKELS.

Are They Going to Invest Heavily on Maui?

A rumor of improvements to the landing at Kahului has reached the city. It is in effect that a wharf 1000 feet in length will be constructed. This will reach the stream and bring the berths for vessels alongside. The Spreckels brothers are said to be the prompters of the scheme. It is reported workmen have been ordered from Scotland.

Coupled with this is a report that the Spreckels brothers will build a railroad from the landing over into Kula.

THEY FOUND THE SPRAY.

PARTIAL SUCCESS OF THE SHORT CRUISE OF THE TUG ELEU.

Searched the Yacht—No Opium Aboard—Captain Mat—The Expedition After Contraband.

The tug Eleu returned about 12 o'clock Sunday night on a cruise in search of opium. She left Port Saturday afternoon. Her main object was to overhaul the yacht Spray, it being thought that the little vessel was out on a smuggling expedition.

From Honolulu the tug went straight to Lanai and Kahoolawe, sailing around those islands. She approached Olawalu and stopped at Lahaina. At the latter place it was learned that the Spray had been seen the day before, going towards Molokai.

The tug put to sea again and made straight for Pukoo on Moloka'i. There she came up with the Spray. Captain Sanders boarded the yacht and searched her from end to end. Nothing was found.

Inquiries were made of various parties, but nothing suspicious in connection with the Spray's movements could be gathered.

Pat Curtis, the owner, captain and crew of the Spray, was very mad at the indignity of having his boat searched. He claimed to be merely out on a pleasure trip.

Captain Sanders firmly believes that a big lot of opium has lately been landed in the islands. He also urges the need of a revenue cutter.

SHE IS IN QUARANTINE.

THE GAELIC HAD A CASE OF VARIOLOID IN THE STEERAGE.

Only One—He Was Left at Nagasaki—No Danger—The Visit of the Big Liner.

The S. S. Gaelic arrived this morning, 10 days from Yokohama.
Soon after leaving Hong Kong it was discovered that a steerage passenger had some kind of an eruption. The physician pronounced it varioid. At Nagasaki the fellow was put ashore with all of his belongings. From there the Gaelic sailed.

When sighted this morning she was boarded by Dr. Day, Health Agent Reynolds and Jack McVeigh.
A thorough examination of every passenger aboard ship was made.
All were found to be in good health.
It was decided, however, to quarantine the vessel.

The Board of Health took charge of her and would allow no one aboard. Only cabin passengers were permitted to land.

The Gaelic brought nearly 900 tons of light Asiatic freight for this port. The Gaelic brought 4 cabin passengers for Honolulu and has 39 through. In the steerage she has 304 Chinese and 380 Japanese for Honolulu. These will go in quarantine tonight.

The Gaelic will sail for San Francisco at 7 a. m. tomorrow.
Mail closes an hour earlier.

His Own Tailor Shop.

J. P. Rodriguez, the well known

Co. and set up in business for himself.
He is next door to Levy's on Fort clothes and will attend to repairing and cleaning Mr. Rodriguez has been in tailoring here twelve years and deserves to have new customers added to his list of old ones.

On Maui Too.

MAUI, April 26.

TO THE STAR.—Supporters of the government on this island are likely to quarrel amongst themselves. Road Supervisor Dickey let a contract for wagons to Sheriff Andrews. This was objected to, but there was still further protest when Mr. Andrews sublet the work to Chinese against a white mechanic who guaranteed as good work at as low a price.

Part of the Work.

Ka Makaanana, a native publication, in today's issue says that Sam Nowlein is telling the natives at Lahaina that his course in giving away everything before the Military Commission was a part of the work assigned to him. He, Charles Clark and Bertelmann, so the story goes, were ordered by their superiors to tell everything they knew.

He is an Evangelist.

Miller, the "boss candy man," held a gospel service at the corner of Fort and Hotel streets Sunday evening. He is a very earnest and engaging speaker, well versed in the Bible and contemporary history. Mr. Miller is of the Methodist faith and does preaching whenever the opportunity offers.

G. H. Munim & Co.'s Extra Dry is the leading brand of Champagne in the world. The imports into the United States for the year 1894 were nearly one

Co. are sole agents for these islands.

THE POWDER MAGAZINE.

A PETITION FROM ITS NEIGHBORS FOR REMOVAL.

They Fear the Stored Explosives—Lives and Property Menaced—Property Values Affected.

Several times within the past two years, there has been talk of moving the government powder magazine from the slope of Punchbowl. The Pacific Hardware Company, as well as residents of the locality have called attention to danger of the present storage. The following petition was presented today:

To His Excellency, S. B. Dole, President, and Members of the Cabinet:

GENTLEMEN,—The undersigned would most respectfully represent, that there are residents and property owners in the immediate neighborhood and vicinity of the powder magazine, situated on Punchbowl in the city of Honolulu, the said powder magazine is surrounded on all sides with lanterns and grass, and with the approach of the dry season is liable to blow up should said lanterns and grass get on fire, particularly in the daytime when there is no watchman present; that on account of the proximity of said magazine both the lives and property of the undersigned are constantly menaced and the value of the adjoining property seriously affected by such possibility.

AT THE HOTEL.

This Evening's Concert by Berger's Boys.

It was the intention originally to have the band concert this evening at Emma Square, but as the Gaelic will remain in port the band will play at the Hawaiian Hotel. An excellent program has been prepared, among the numbers being three new pieces, including the fantasia, "Little Flatterer," by the celebrated Ellengburg; selection, "Giselle," by Adams; march, "The Nibelungen," by Wagner; and the ever-popular "La Paloma" will also be played. The program merits a large attendance.

Unemployed Militiamen.

Up to noon ten militiamen had registered for work at the office of Adjutant Pratt. It is requested the people in town requiring the services of reliable mechanics or laborers apply to military headquarters. The hours for registration are 8 a. m. to 12 noon.

Produce a Counterfeit.

A city merchant was showing this morning a cake of soap and wrapper he was about to mail to Colgate & Co., of New York. The great manufacturers will be surprised. The soap and wrapper are from Japan. The combination is a counterfeit of Colgate's, except the name is Colgate. The imitation is quite close in appearance and readily deceives the casual observer.

Champagne has the highest award for excellence and purity. The celebrated vintage of 1888 is now on the market.
Macfarlane & Co. are sole agents for these islands.

months on the reef for the larceny of a bag of coal from Allen &

Two Chinamen were arrested Saturday night for having opium in possession.
